The Emmy Awards over the weekend prompted Hollywood to celebrate the festivities with various gift lounges around town. Below is a sampling of what celebs were invited to attend and the goods that were being shared with them.

PILOT PEN AND GBK's PRE-EMMY LUXURY LOUNGE at the L'Ermitage Hotel in Beverly Hills:

Chef Filippo Sinisgalli from Il Palato Italiano was on hand from Italy to provide one-bite food samples while gifting oversize loaves of his baked Panetone Milanese. Swedish bed company Hasten's was showcasing their mattresses and bedding, while gifting a three-night stay in a five-star Swedish resort. For those who preferred something more tropical, Belmont Resort on the Caribbean island of St. Martin was also gifting stays.

Plastic surgery center Viva Youth gave out gift certificates for $1000 towards services, while Heal and Soul hand] certificates for a private yoga session, massage and magnet healing session.

On the electronic front, there was the PowerCube, cube-shaped power sockets containing four additional outlets and two USB ports. Meanwhile, the portable AudioCube received by celebs provides a perfect 360 surround sound due to the omnidirectional speakers.

Face and body products - including new skin polish - was gifted by Heather Marianna's Beauty Kitchen. Teen celebs or celeb with kids received a gift certificate for a Beauty Kitchen Spa party at the recipient's home that includes various custom stations for creating their own products such as lotions, bath soaks, face masks and more.

Swimline Water Sports let celebs choose from various floating loungers and inflatables such as giant swans and flamingos, pizza rafts, bagel rings as well as ride-on for kids like giant ducks and turtles.
