

Celebrities teed off for a great cause at George Lopez's Celebrity Golf Classic in Toluca Lake, California, to raise money to send 250 children with kidney disease to a week-long summer and fall camp, on Monday, May 7. Following a warm day of fun in the sun, celebrity golfers who worked up a mild sunburn, including rapper and actress, Eve, actors Alfonso Ribera and David Arquette, stopped by all-natural beauty and skincare line, Beauty Kitchen's pop up booth at the charity event, cooling off with the brand's After Sun Aloe Spray, and taking home custom golf ball shaped soap.

